INTRODUCTION

Gayle A. Hall is an East London Artist and Surface Designer of Caribbean heritage.

Creativity has always been in her nature and art at the forefront of her passions.

Photography led her into a career in television where she has been working as a live video editor for many years. She has won Emmys for the Olympics and been part of BAFTA and RTS award winning productions in drama.

As a member of BAFTA she takes part in voting and judging the television awards.

As with many people, Covid 19 changed her life. Where previously she was fully engaged in working on audience driven productions, sometimes with large crowds such as music festivals and light entertainment such as Big Brother and I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here! her diary went from full to empty overnight.

The enforced isolation ignited a surge of creativity in Gayle and allowed her time to fully immerse herself in her art.

Her first solo exhibition 'Portrait in Words' was in November 2021. Her portraits are based on memories and personal histories using photographs as a starting point. Each piece conveys the essence and sensitivity of the person she is transforming into art whether as a portrait or 'Portrait in Words'. 'It's like going to therapy,' a client from New York said when she was given a portrait of her mother aged 22 years.

Gayle's parents were from the Caribbean, her father from Barbados and her mother from Trinidad. She would spend most of her free time with her mother, Martha Mina Hall, who would talk about the vibrancy and energy of the island and the carnival. These influences and Gayle's own travels in the Caribbean are reflected in the visual language of her work, especially in her approach to surface design and interiors. Her company's name, YouGo Productions, derives from the motivational words of her mother: 'You go girl'.

Gayle's artistry is constantly evolving and she has recently applied her abstract art to creating home interiors under the 'For the Love of M' range. This range brings together bold design and a contemporary aesthetic, offering distinctive pieces for high-end interiors.

PORTRAITS

MARTHA MINA HALL

Personal and private...portraits are very personal. Permission has been given to show these.

Choose your photograph... Portraits can be created from photographs, old and worn or new and clean. The portrait is bordered by images that tell the story of the individual. This gives further depth and personality to the centrepiece.

SHIRLEY DE HYMES

When the client approached Gayle, she only knew that she wanted to honour the memory of her mother, Shirley. She shared a collection of photographs spanning various stages of her life. Through their conversations, Gayle gained a deep understanding of Shirley's personality. Drawing inspiration from this, she designed a portrait border adorned with hearts to reflect the warmth and love that surrounded Shirley. The client had a profound connection to the Cancer zodiac sign. To celebrate this, Gayle explored symbolic representations of Cancer across different cultures and thoughtfully incorporated them into the portrait, resulting in a deeply meaningful tribute.

NATHAN

Nathan is a very talented host, presenter and actor. His photograph was originally in colour but Gayle decided that the contours of his face would be better suited to a black and white image. His joy and power shine out.

GRANDMA & GRANDSON

This portrait of Gayle's mother with her grandson is very special. It was created to show their special bond. It is her grandson's favourite portrait as he recalls 'Grandma always made me laugh'. He is 5 months old in the portrait.

PORTRAIT IN WORDS

Choose your design, choose your phrase...
A meaningful piece is created in a few words. Each letter tells part of the person's journey by using images and heartfelt messages from friends and family. The messages are easy to understand while keeping emotional depth. Mina design is shown.

Choose your words... When commissioned by the TV production company Nineteen Fifteen, inspiration was drawn from their signature colours to create the Visi design. This piece celebrates their legacy, showcasing to the world the remarkable programmes they helped produce. [Watch the full Interview]

TESTIMONIALS

TESTIMONIALS

Jay Sinc

'I had a great time working with Gayle on some soft furnishings to enhance my lounge area. I wanted bold, I wanted colours of the Jamaican flag, I wanted oversized cushions and I wanted lots of them to create both an opulent and cosy feeling. I really couldn't be happier with the result.

Golden Haven Cushions in duchess satin have completely transformed and completed my lounge area, and literally every single visitor I have to my home comments on them! I look forward to working with Gayle on other projects for this home, and the next one.'

Christine Linton

'While in London, I bought four stunning velvet cushion covers from Gayle A. Hall. The Golden Haven and Anthium designs are simply exquisite. The craftsmanship and quality are top-notch. From the moment I placed my order until the cushions arrived, the entire process was smooth and efficient. I'm thrilled to have brought home these beautiful pieces of art, which will undoubtedly elevate my home decor.'

Incomeinc Inky

'My joy is watching people create. It is something I don't understand but stare at in awe. My brain just doesn't work that way. What was created for me was an illustration of a portrait of my mother. It looked like her, but it didn't. It was a picture of her before I was born and it always makes me pause. We know our parents as our parents. We don't know our parents as teenagers or young adults. That conundrum made for a personal piece of love that stopped me in my tracks and made me wonder. Ultimately it gave me the warm fuzzies. I am positive I scared Gayle during the process. Lol - The journey was therapeutic because I'd recently loss my mom and everything in my life tilted. Gayle is an amazingly creative artist, a therapist and a kind spirit. Thru her art she captures your heart.'

Vicky Betihavas

'Professional, creative, unique and beautiful pieces.
Artistically Gayle brings a fresh approach to bespoke artwork.
Thoroughly recommend getting in touch with her to get a unique piece created for your home or office.'

MY DOOR IS ALWAYS OPEN

This a bespoke piece entitled 'My Door is Always Open'.

Many of Gayle's clients return, drawn by her distinctive approach, artistry and warmth. Many become friends.
